Foreword

IN ITS INFANCY when Texas State College for Women was a lone building high on a hill, it was blessed with a beautiful and spacious campus. Proud of the growth and expansion since its establishment, each successive student body has seen the material expression of this growth in beautiful buildings on top of other hills surrounded by carefully landscaped scenery for our aesthetic enjoyment.

We believe that one cannot associate very long with beauty without retaining some of its refining characteristics within. In the organization of administrative committees, campus beauty has played an important part. Three faculty members have charge of Exterior Improvements have effectively created for us an atmosphere harmonious to the principles of artistic taste.

To them and to their achievements we have dedicated this book. With the hope of perpetuating the memory of our college activities against a beautiful background, we give to you, the students, your

Texas State College for Women, Denton

Miss Willie Isabella Birge, Director of the Department of Biology, given a patch of weeds and two cottonwoods soon had growing grass, japonica, pear trees, hyacinth—in short, the state-wide famous Botanical Gardens. Lily pools and waterfalls bring an air of tranquility to the rock garden which serves as a windbreak for the Botanical Gardens and is a beautification project of Miss Birge and the Committee.

Mr. Fred W. Westcourt, Director of the Department of Rural Arts and Chairman of the Exterior Beautifications Committee, is responsible for much of our campus beauty. Having done the major part of the campus landscaping, he will superintend plantings around the new buildings. In addition to overseeing the care of tulip beds, roses and shrubs on the campus grounds, Mr. Westcourt has for the past ten years had fifty trees planted annually. To such beautification, as planned by Mr. Westcourt and his Committee, we dedicate this book.

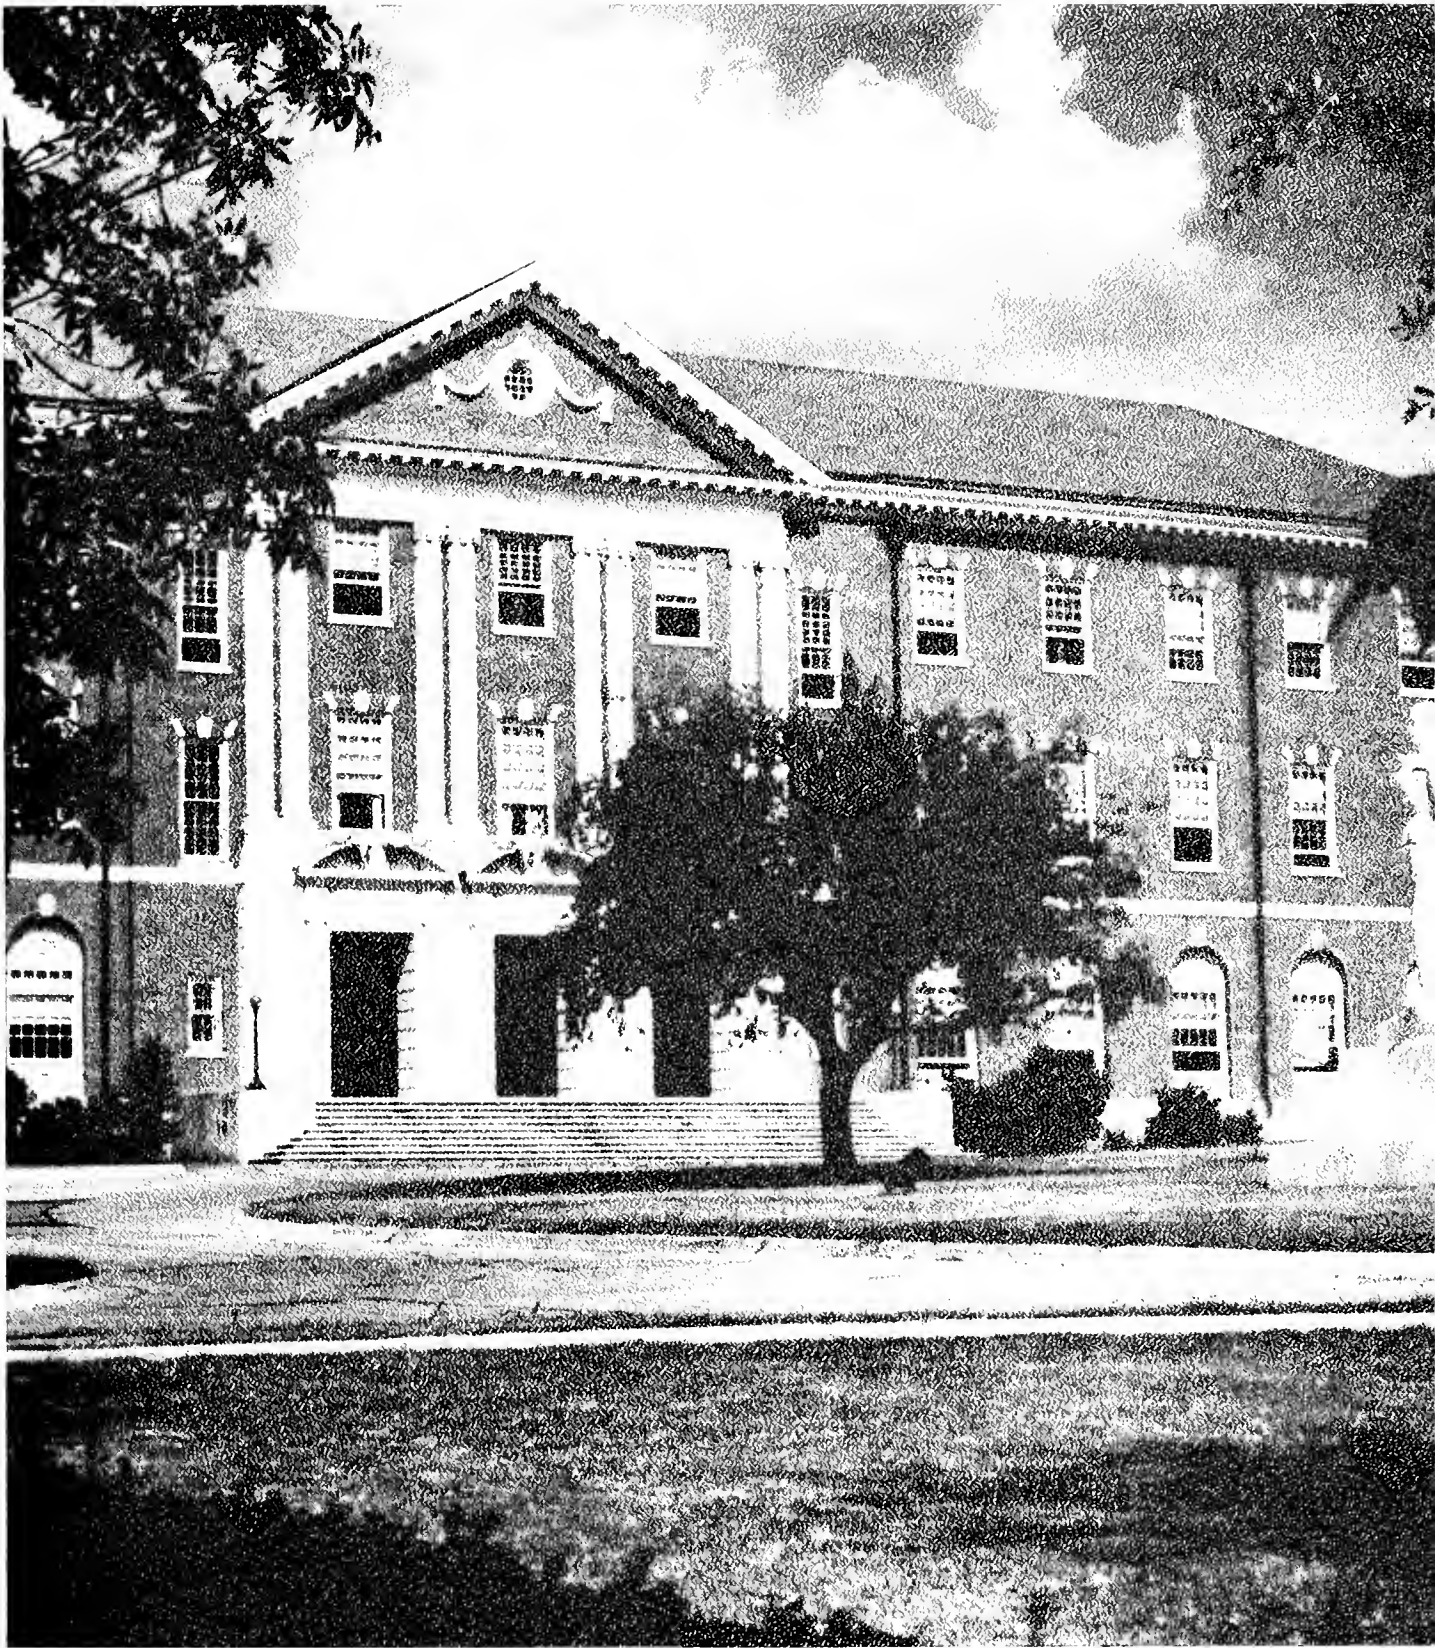

Miss Mary Marshall, Director of the Department of Fine Arts, is the third member of the Exterior Beautification Committee. Achieving naturalness and delightful informality, she is responsible for the plan of the rock garden and in collaboration with the other committee members, planned the gardens around the president's home. With her keen artistic insight, Miss Marshall has helped to make the TSCW campus a thing of beauty.

President L. H. Hubbard

Behind many of the distinguishing characteristics of TSCW which set it apart from other institutions of its kind, you will find the broad vision and forethought of our PRESIDENT L. H. HUBBARD. An outstanding educator of the Southwest, President Hubbard has been directly responsible for much of the rapid growth that has been so pronounced since he has been at the head of TSCW's administration.

Dean E. V. White

Author and teller of tall tales, our genial DEAN has acted as friendly advisor to students for twenty-five years on the TSCW campus. Although his day is a busy one, DEAN WHITE takes time off to straighten out the kinks that invariably get into upperclassmen's schedules and to start the lower-classmen on the road to scholastic achievement.

The only remaining member of the original faculty, our ASSOCIATE DEAN has endeared herself to each succeeding student body as a tolerant sympathizer, a lover of things beautiful, and an example of gracious and unselfish womanhood.

Miss Jessie M. Humphries

Mrs. Mattie Lloyd Woolen

Our DEAN OF WOMEN offers a sympathetic ear to the student body regardless of the problems brought to her. Friendly counsel and intelligent judgment have made her an efficient and distinctive part of our administration.

Dearest Miss Adams
You have been wonderful to all of us. You have been a stabilizer and a great help to all of us "freshman". My wish is that you may have the best of everything and I love and always be happy and remember you in Heaven and I send it.

Miss Adams;
I don't know how to express myself in regard to all the help and patience you have had with me. I really appreciate what you have done and hope we can continue our friendship.
May success and happiness be yours throughout life.
With love,
Linda Lee

Administration Building

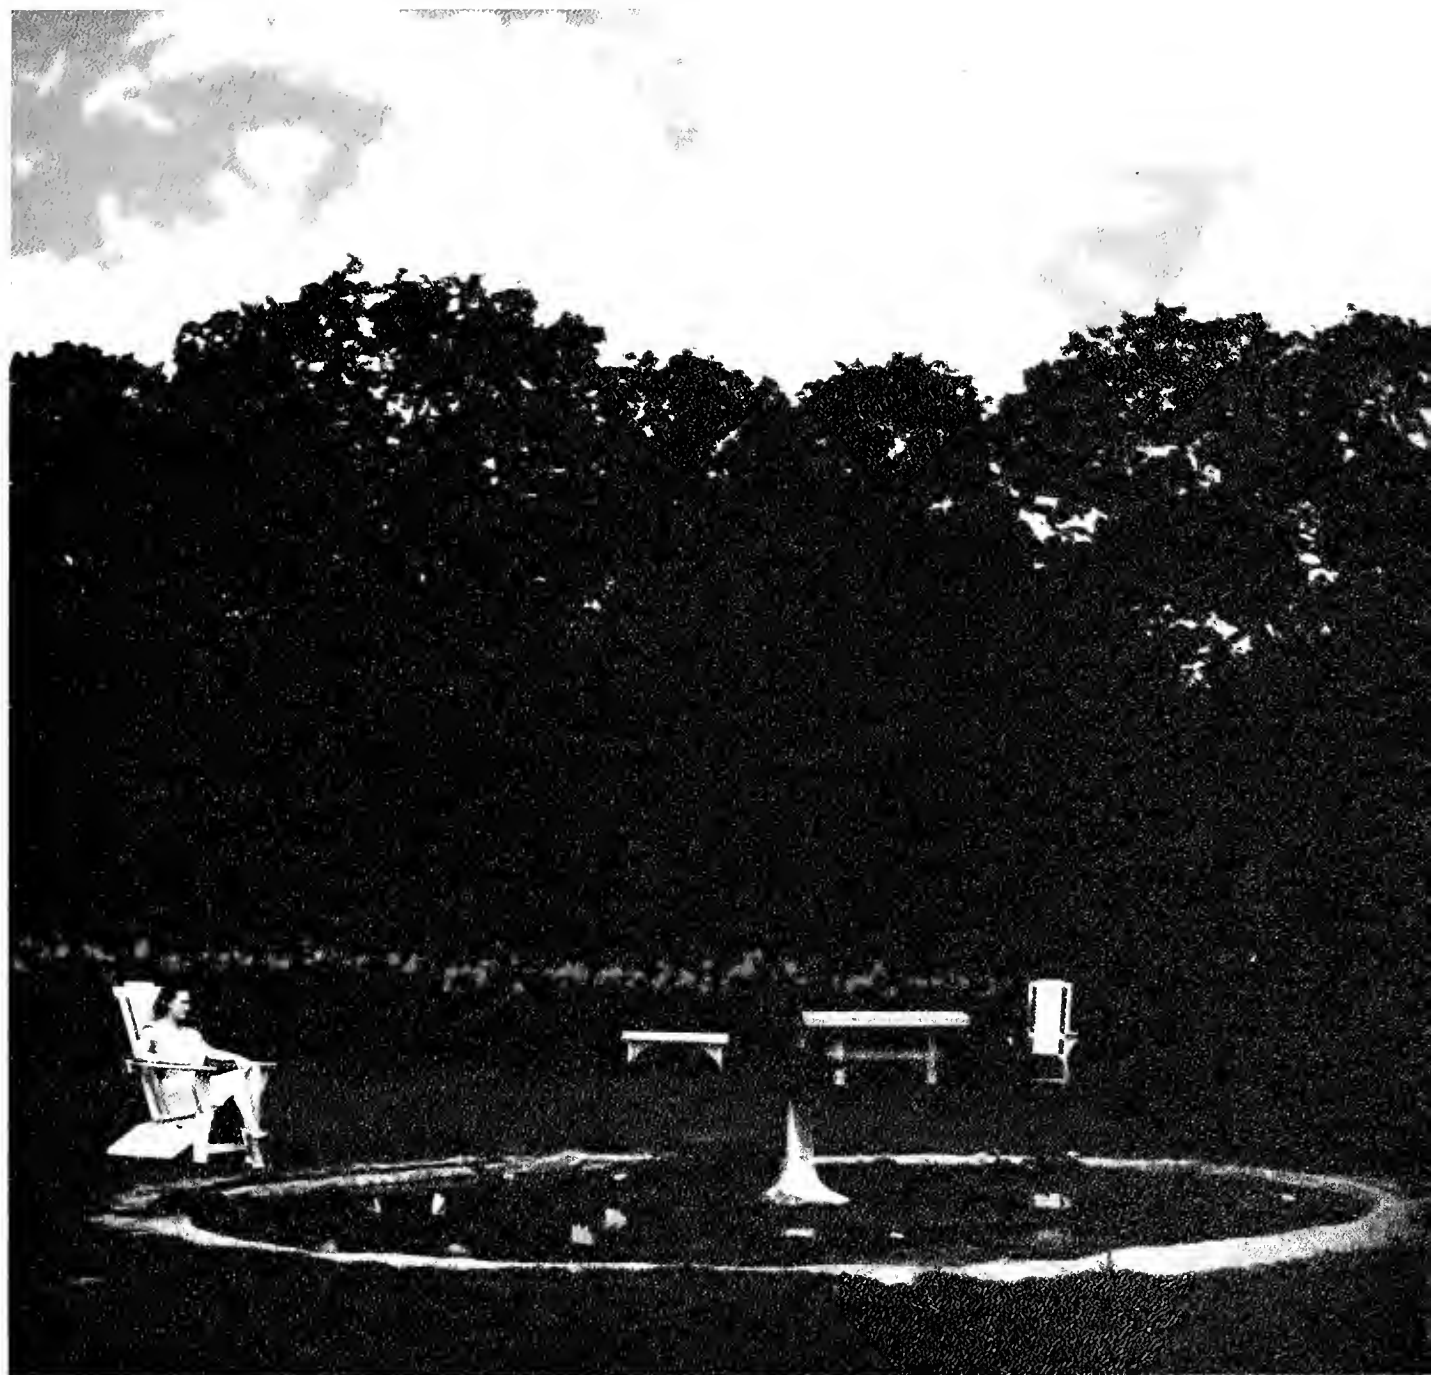

Oldest of all buildings on the campus, the Ad Building has been the center of scholastic activity for 2,342 students this year.

She stands apart from the others
With a single jewel in her hair.
Her dress is fading 'neath its ivy trim,
But she proudly affects not to care.

She solaces her pride with memories
Of the time she reigned here alone
Without all those adolescent buildings
That still haven't grown a dome.

—G. BURSON.

Organizations

Dear Miss Adams,

You have been the sweetest hostess I've lived with yet. You are such a sweet and swell person to know.
I hope you will always remember the noisy little girls in room 22 of Wheeler.
We were pretty rowdy some times, but you were always sweet enough to save us from House Council. I don't believe I could possibly meet a sweeter person than you are. My wish for you is a long happy and successful life. I hope you get your Hollywood dream man as "Madam Lurena I. Laury" predicted you would Always remember

Lena "Tootsie" Foote

Student Life

Dear Miss Adams.

I know I'm no beauty and shouldn't be writing on this page but you see there's no other place to say what I have to say.

I have enjoyed, very much, knowing you and I think that you were always swell to all of us even though I did make too much noise.

But always remember the girls in Wheeler 21.

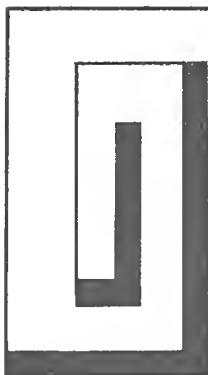

Wishes of success in everything

Mary "Strawberry" Skyer
Elin M. W. & L. P.

BEAUTIES

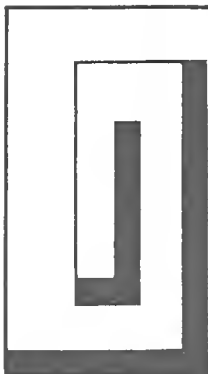

Helen McDaniel

Dubbed "Sarah Bernhardt" by intimates, Helen is always to be found at the Music-Speech Building in the wardrobe room, painting stage sets or memorizing her lines for the next College Little Theater production. Tall, slender, and dark, this SENIOR MEB BEAUTY adds prestige to hometown Denison.

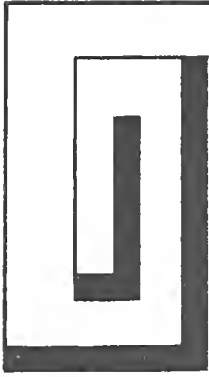

Harriet Garrett

Blessed with a skin that is lovely even when the complexion is washed off, five feet two-inch Harriet is a home economics major from Lubbock. This JUNIOR BEAUTY holds the distinctive record of being the only TSCW girl who intensely dislikes uniforms. Her very blue eyes are always on the lookout for recipes. This MEB is gifted in culinary arts but occasionally takes a swing at a golf ball.

Christine Maddox

Hazel eyes, olive skin, brown hair, a sense of humor, and a buoyant enthusiasm contribute to the make-up of Chris Maddox, SOPHOMORE BEAUTY. Dancing, swimming, and cooking are the favorite pastimes of the foods major from Abilene. She loves dogs, especially one small cocker, "Taffy". A stately five seven, L'Allegro, Chrissie prefers her men tall and dark.

Ruth Tilley

Referred to as a composite of Lamarr, Bennett, and Leigh, FRESHMAN BEAUTY RUTH TILLEY adores dancing, music, picnics, tennis, and swimming. Best of all, though, she likes music and often plays the piano. Another of those lucky blue eye-brown hair combinations... this member of the Cotton Ball Queen's court calls Shamrock home.

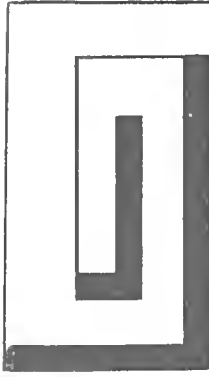

Claudine Shoemaker

Deanie with the dark brown hair, blue eyes and a flawless skin came from Dallas to grace the English Department. Of medium height this BEAUTY AT LARGE prefers tall brunette men. Swimming is the only sport she indulges in though she enjoys watching football and basketball games. Dancing, reading fiction, sometimes playing the piano, are this Chap's favorite pursuits.

Betty Bowman

Darkest of all the beauties, BETTY'S air of vivacity comes in part from those laughing brown eyes. BEAUTY-AT-LARGE, she puts horseback riding, tennis, swimming, archery on her list of favorite leisure hour occupations with dancing topping them all. A mere five feet three inches, she is an art major from Fort Worth.

NOMINEES

★ Beauties were selected by William O'Donnell, district manager of the Texas Consolidated Theaters, and Charles Freeman, talent booking manager for Interstate Theaters.

WHO'S WHO

IN DEPARTMENTS

WHO'S WHO IN

Virginia Halbedl

★ Named Who's Who by the Department of Music, Virginia possesses a beautiful voice secondary only to a deep understanding of and a real appreciation for all things musical. Piquant and vivacious, for the past two years she has been soloist with the College Symphony Orchestra, and for four years has been a member of the College Choir. A voice major, Virginia is also affiliated with the Odeon Club.

Clarice Rein

★ Speech honors go to Playwright Clarice of "Kinder, Kinder" fame, that play which highlighted the Writers' Conference. Versatile in anything dramatic and with a surplus of creative ability, Clarice has made her mark here as president of the National Collegiate Players and secretary of the Speech Club, interspersing her official duties with brilliant performances in Little Theater. With a past record that speaks so well, Clarice promises recognition in a broader field on graduation.

DEPARTMENTS

Janie Ladner

★ Janie is unique in that she is high lady for both the Mathematics and Library Science Departments. Such a feat can only be explained away with the fact that she is a double major, has applied herself with equally good results in both fields, and has been blessed with more than a double portion of intelligence. She is treasurer of Alpha Chi, a member of the Student Advisory Council, Library Science Club, and the Math Club.

Florine Foster

★ A mixer of formulas and a delver in the beakers and bottles of the Science Building, Florine Foster was named for achievement in the Department of Chemistry. Hailing from Longview, this Chemistry Club president finds time to be a representative of the Student Advisory Council and to serve on the Student Council of Religious Activities.

WHO'S WHO IN

Billie Jo Grimes

★ Although just a Junior, Billie Jo Grimes was given the nod by the Business Administration Department as being the most outstanding student. A fine sense of responsibility and excellent scholarship has placed her as secretary of the Business and Professional Women's Club and a member of Alpha Lambda Delta. She finds time from her secretarying to be a jolly good fellow in private life.

Dorothy Scott

★ Distinctive in that she is one of the two Juniors awarded the title of Who's Who, Dorothy Scott was given the blue ribbon in Government. Well versed in her constitution, Dorothy is interested in the world's problems, say the government professors. Hard working and possessing much natural aptitude, she carried away this number one place with flying colors.

DEPARTMENTS

Marianna Rucker

★ President of Delta Phi Delta, honorary art organization, and a member of Adelpian and Art Clubs, Marianna Rucker has been chosen by the Department of Fine Arts to represent them in the ranks of distinguished students. A major in costume design, Marianna has assisted in designing class stunt costumes for the past three years.

Emmy Lou Miller

★ Conceded Who's Who in Journalism, Emmy Lou Miller has functioned this year as Desk Editor of the Lass-O, secretary of the Student Advisory Council, treasurer of Theta Sigma Phi, and member of Alpha Chi. Possessing an untiring perseverance and ambition, Emmy Lou has proved a good journalist both off and on the campus.

WHO'S WHO IN

Henrietta Greenberg

★ A leader in campus affairs and known most prominently as President of the Women's Recreation Association, Henrietta Greenberg was selected the most outstanding in the Health and Physical Education Department. Very tiny, blond and popular with her droll statements, she's an outdoor woman with consistent skill in any sport.

Anita Evarts

★ Anita Evarts, named Who's Who in the Physics Department, is a Math major but the same excellent quality of reasoning in one field applies to the other also. Hailing from the Sunshine State, Nita is a junior, interested in astronomy and photography, and active in anything doing. Blond, energetic, and good-natured, she's quite a favorite.

DEPARTMENTS

Margaret Ramsey

★ Margaret, a kindergarten-primary major, is given Philosophy and Education honors. Being President of the Round Table was a demanding position, but her ease in meeting every situation, her persistent effort, many-sided interests, and eager desire to be of service to others are praiseworthy characteristics.

Eloise O'Quinn

★ Eloise O'Quinn, Sociology's representative, has regal good looks and a keen interest in her social work. A secretary of Houston Hall and President of Alpha Kappa Delta, Eloise has superior scholastic ability. Stepping out of the sociological realm a bit, she has written some poetry and words of a class song.

WHO'S WHO IN

Pauline Flowers

★ The History Department chose an attractive and progressive representative in the person of Pauline Flowers, senior. Dark good looks, plus unaffected friendliness have made her popular with students and conscientious effort plus enviable scholarship have made her in demand with the history professors. Pauline double majored and has a good record in her English field.

Marian Woodland

★ "Chunky," well loved by everybody who has encountered that genial and accommodating personality in the dining room, in classes, or about the campus, holds down top honors in the Biology Department. A golf champion and winner of the Leman Cup on the side, Chunky has maintained a studious and skilled standing in things scientific.

Dorothy Speed

★ Dorothy, affectionately dubbed "Speedy" by friends who appreciate her as a genial straight-shooting good fellow, scored the high triumph in the Foreign Language Department. Modest, though a campus leader in many instances, "Speedy" is respected for her excellent citizenship throughout the career of the Class of '41. Bringing with her the vitality of a West Texas sandstorm and adding to that the accomplishment of a brilliant scholastic record, she stands fortified against anything.

Julia Ballard

★ Julia Ballard, whose special accomplishment is twisting the King's English about her little finger in thoroughly charming essays, is named Who's Who of the English Department. President of the thriving Press Club and active contributor to the Daedalian Literary Quarterly, Julia for her conscientiousness and perseverance was easily conceded the distinction.

Verner Windham

★ Natalie Northcutt, Germaine Wilson, and Verner Windham share triple honors in the Home Economics Department, largest department in the college. Distinctive in Foods and Nutrition. Natalie is student director of Brackenridge dining hall and a member of Phi Upsilon Omicron. Geraldine is president of that organization and also outstanding in Foods and Nutrition. Representing Home Economics Education, Verner is vice-president of Phi U, honorary organization of the department.

Geraldine Wilson

★ Pauline Miller from the Rural Arts Department copped the high position in that division for the second consecutive year. Pleasant Pauline is well-liked on the campus.

Pauline Miller

Natalie Northcutt

WHO'S WHO

AMONG STUDENTS

W H O ' S W H O . .

MARY LANGFORD

JANE ELLIS

LEE DELL BARKER NEUMANN

DOROTHY SCHMITTGENS

★ As full of jokes as the magician's trick bag—that's JANE ELLIS. She is a health and physical education major, active in WRA, the Triton Club and the Physical Education and Professional Club. A regular old salt, Jane of the Chaparral Club has an affection for boats and an authoritative gleam in her eye when the subject is brought up for discussion.

★ So democratic and enthusiastic, MARY LANGFORD must have been born a politician. In the seat of president of Standard Hall, she presides vivaciously and makes every occupant her special charge. A double major in art education and English, Mary is a bland member of the Philomathia Club and a past-master at making molehills out of mountains.

★ LEE DELL BARKER NEUMANN is that pretty package of tap dancing fervor, contribution of the Junior Class to the Health and Physical Education Department and the undisputed life of any party. Affiliated with the Adelpian Club and right in the midst of class stunts and other featured programs for the entertainment of weary students, Lee Dell took time out to get married, thus copping the position of the only Mrs. in our ranks of Who's Who.

★ "SCHMITTIE," the brain behind the Lass-O, is a versatile woman. She dashes off a whiz of an editorial and then hikes for the swimming pool and breaks the breast stroke record. Leadership projecting with that determined chin, DOROTHY SCHMITTGENS is a blond striking personality behind the copy desk and in meetings of Theta Sigma Phi, Adelpian, and Houston Club.

.IN AMERICAN COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES

★ Material for responsible positions is BETSY ROSS, Junior representative, member of Chaparral and Houston Clubs, and on the Lass-O staff. Dark-eyed Betsy always manages to be in the right place at the right time with usually the right contribution to make to the gathering. An ardent backer of student government, Betsy is aided and abetted by a keen sense of humor.

★ ROSEMARY POLK, thrice chosen a beauty by her classmates, able in the home economics department, and efficient in her duties as president of the L'Allegro Club, qualified right on top for a position in the ranks of Who's Who. ROSIE is a secretary in Stoddard Hall; is the sort of Advisory Council Senior that any underclassman would like to know.

★ A house counselor for three years and finally president of Brack Hall would be quite a record for anyone but ANITA DOYLE. Quiet but fun, dependable and efficient, Nita has built up a well-rounded record by being Regatta Captain for three successive years. On the side she has made varsity on speedball, baseball, volleyball, hockey and basketball.

★ Making its appearance on all the lists of "charming girls" and "beauty nominations" is the name of MARY FRANCES JONES and it's easy to understand with one look at a pair of bright blue eyes. A hard-working English major, she is editor of the Daedalian Quarterly. Mary Frances will also have it known that she will follow the profession of teaching until the large blond man, reasonable facsimile of a Greek God, arrives.

BETSY ROSS

ROSEMARY POLK

MARY FRANCES JONES

ANITA DOYLE

W H O ' S W H O .

GWEN JAMES

RUBY JIM SLAUGHTER

EMMY LOU MILLER

MARGARET RAMSEY

★ MARGARET RAMSEY, highly successful in club work on the campus, has turned in an admirable performance at the helm of the Round Table and Kindergarten Clubs. Active with the MEB's, Margaret is brunetly good-looking. This promoter of Mardi Gras's heart lies in the East still, her former home being Philadelphia, but her energies lie with the job of the moment.

★ Efficient and likable with it all is GWEN JAMES, who in her four full years has taken in her genial stride membership in Alpha Lambda Delta, corresponding secretaryship of Alpha Chi, and a big hand in the doings of the Philos. In addition, she's been available as executive secretary of the Ex-Students Association and rates ace high in the music department where she is a piano major.

★ Beauty plus brains gives you the combination of RUBY JIM SLAUGHTER with memberships in honoraries Alpha Lambda Delta and Phi Upsilon Omicron. Reared on A's, this Junior took over temporarily the helm of the class presidency and did an admirable job. Ruby Jim belongs to Mary Swartz Rose Club and the Chaparrals.

★ Busy as the much-publicized bee, EMMY LOU MILLER labors smoothly as desk editor of the Lass-O, secretary of the Student Advisory Council, treasurer of Theta Sigma Phi and member of MEB and Alpha Chi. Dependable and industrious, she has her well-loaded wagon securely hitched to a luminous star located somewhere in the Fourth Estate.

IN AMERICAN COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES

★ Charming as a tea party hostess is VIOLET BeVILLE, our student body vice-president with the friendly voice and the well-groomed manners. But there's a verve 'neath the gentle exterior, to-wit: Speech and MEB membership, activity in the National Collegiate Players, and hopeful concentration in the radio field but determination to enjoy teaching if need be.

★ Business-like in a thoroughly charming way is rosy-cheeked and popular JANE STRICKLAND, union fund manager. This Junior French and art major is a member of Le Cercle Fran-cais, Houston and Chaparral Clubs. "STRICK" gives us an Irish grin and the old one-two about "a brick for the Union Building instead of a Saturday night snack" which is all fine and good for us and we appreciate JANE, the rustler.

★ A whirlwind with astonishing versatility and alarming energy is little SARA TROY, secretary of the student body. Sadie is a Junior English major, member of the Chaparral Club, dabbler in debate, conventions off the campus, and anything requiring ingenuity and farsightedness with which she abounds. Smart as a whip and a lot more attractive, Sara's scheduled to ignite the world.

★ Titian-haired hope of the modern dance group is jolly JOY MILLER, everybody's favorite because she's such "a good fellow." She has filled her college days with president-ship of her Eastland Club, work on the council of the Physical Education Professional Club, fun with the WRA, collect-ing poetry, and passing out cheery greetings even during Dead Week.

VIOLET BeVILLE

JANE STRICKLAND

JOY MILLER

SARA TROY

MARGARET GREENE

MARJORY SMITH

JOHNYE WOMACK

WHO'S WHO... IN AMERICAN COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES

★ Representative of the Senior Class, MARGARET GREENE isn't bad at all to look at and functions brilliantly in the music department, L'Allegro and Odeon Clubs and most anything else in procedure. Seen about the campus MEG's a trim looking little figure, quick on the trigger with a cordial smile.

★ MARJORY SMITH, quietly efficient in her position as literary editor of the Daedalian Quarterly, has gained for herself the unofficial title of Poet Laureate of the Campus. Double majoring in English and Journalism she divides her time between the fourth floor and the news room and on the side has time to whip off "R.F.D.," a one-act play which highlighted the Writers' Conference. Blond, retiring, capable, Marjorie is a member of Theta Sigma Phi, Journalism, English, and Press Clubs.

★ JOHNYE WOMACK, torn between news editing for the Lass-O and presiding over the Student Council of Religious Activities, has remained miraculously calm and collected. She actually finds time for fun on the side and any extra-curricular job someone's always seeing fit to pass out to her. For she's capable!

RE-ELECTED TO WHO'S WHO

Outstanding students elected to Who's Who last year as Juniors who are automatically re-elected this year are: JANE ABBOTT, NAOMI BOUTWELL, ALICE BRYAN, MARGARET BUTTRILL, BETTY EWING, HENRIETTA GREENBERG, MARY ELLEN KELHOFER, EDITH ROSENQUEST, JEAN STOCKEY, and EDITH THOMAS.

MUSIC

COLLEGE SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

One man and eighty girls make the TSCW SYMPHONY a unique organization. Directed by W. Gibson Walters, this is the only all-girl orchestra with complete instrumentation in the Southwest. Margaret Bailey and Roberta von Grep have been concertmistresses this season. The symphony's fame has spread over Texas through their programs in many parts of the state.

SYMPHONIC NOTES

Small girls and big bass fiddles . . . TSCW furnishes both wind and skill for her horn section . . . Marjorie Trott exchanges her clarinet chair for a piano bench to perform Rachmaninoff's concerto with the orchestra . . . many people, each with a part to play, work together, and out comes music.

MODERN CHOIR

Under the direction of Dr. William E. Jones the MODERN CHOIR is one of the most sought-after entertainment groups on the campus. Each year the choir makes a tour of Texas accompanied by a string trio and Concertmistress Jean Stockey. ERNEST HUTCHESON of the Julliard School of Music said of their performance, "The tone quality and intonation was beautiful. I was delighted."

(Reading from top to bottom): String trio, composed of Margaret Bailey, Roberta von Grep, and Lucille Jester; Soloists Margaret Holmes, Virginia Halbedl, Beth Masterson; Mistress of Ceremonies Jean Stockey; and Miriam Collard, accompanist.

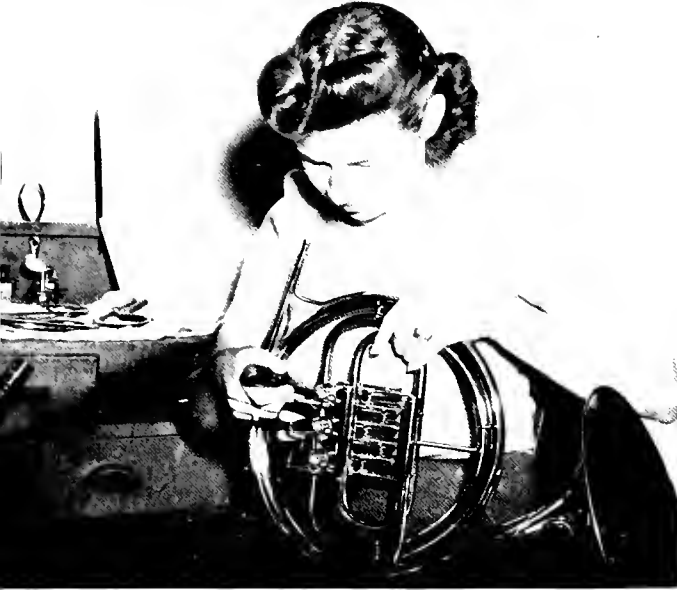

CAMPUS SERENADERS

TSCW's Serenaders go Phil Spitalny one better and have no man in evidence when they play for dances and other campus and out-of-town events. Velma Bargainer wields the baton. Much credit is due Travis Tittle who has coached them for four years and assisted in the arrangements.

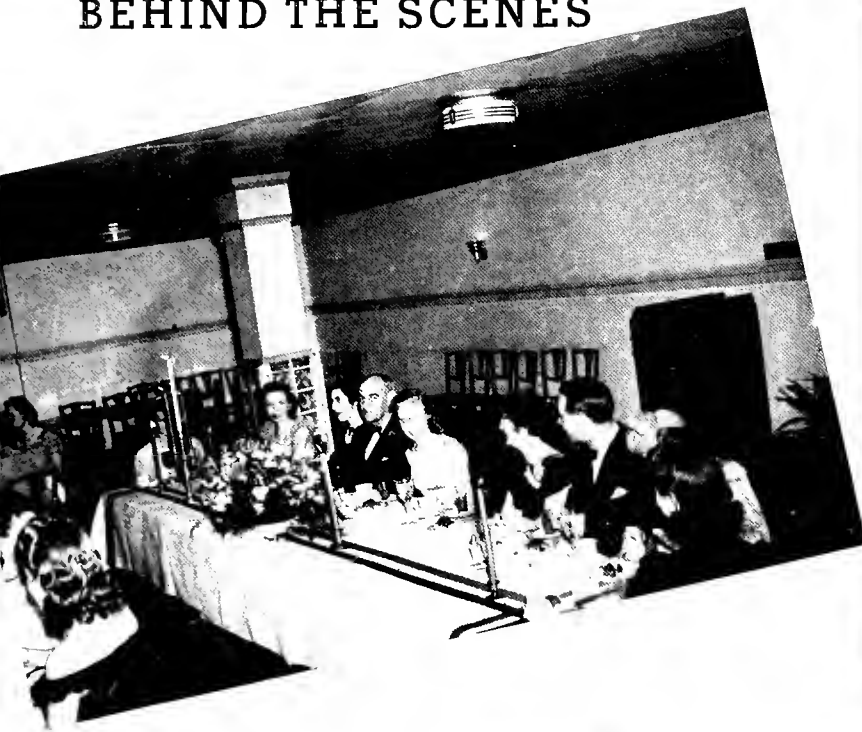

RADIO ENSEMBLE

Under the baton of Virginia Knight, the Radio Ensemble broadcasts twice monthly over the air-waves. An outgrowth of the regular Symphony Orchestra, the Ensemble has proved a popular unit in the Music Department.

Cleverly designed costumes, a super make-up job, and good acting combined to make this Shakespearean comedy a favorite of Denton audiences.

HERE THEY

Top to bottom: Betty Grimes as Countess de Lage confronts Crystal with husband-stealing accusations; Margaret Hutchison as Sylvia goes through a set of indifferent exercises under strict Instructress Alyne Fletcher; Dorothea Roney as Mrs. Wagstaff, gets gossip and Jungle Red fingernails from Micki Temple as Olga, Frances Casey and Mary Ruff as hairdresser and pedicurist Clara Alice Crouch; Louise Scott as Maggie and Juanita Vest as Jane discuss the goings on of their employers.

ARE..."THE WOMEN"

Most talked-about production of the College Little Theater season was "The Women," capricious, unpredictable, uncensored. Top to bottom: Mary K. Adams as Mary and Betty Lou Gough as Little Mary; Mary in a scene with domestics Mary McGee and Juanita Vest; Wanda June Williams as Edith, Betty Jones as Peggy, and Mary Jane Baze, the nurse; Violet BeVille as the scheming Crystal Allen and the victim's wife, Mary; a group in the exclusive dress shoppe follow their instinctive nose for gossip.

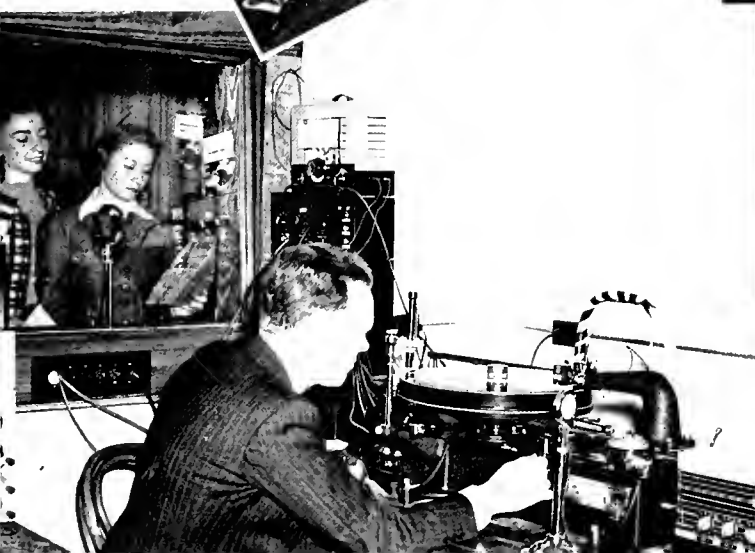

SPEECH EXTRAS

In addition to the numerous Little Theater productions, the Speech Department is the home station for many other activities. The popular Verse Speaking Choir has appeared before many appreciative Texas audiences this past season under the direction of Miss Mary K. Sands. Below left, behind the scenes with Mr. Weaver; Mr.

Horger adjusts Sir Toby's stomach, one of the prize make-up jobs of the year; Texas School of the Air broadcasts weekly from the college studio; Dr. Talley records the voices of Violet BeVille, Clarice Rein, and Gladys DuBose.

NEVER A DULL MOMENT WITH WRA

A well rounded recreational program makes membership in the WRA a profitable and enjoyable experience.

Right, the judges have the floor at the diving meet in the gym pool; scenes at the WRA Carnival; Nancy Sehman passes the marshmallows to an advisee.

H O C K E Y

Field hockey was offered last fall directed by Anita Doyle, manager, and Miss Virginia Bourquardez, sponsor. Biggest event of the season came Nov. 4 when the TSCW team became one of the few college groups to score on the touring team of the United States Field Hockey Association.

G O L F

Faculty and students alike take advantage of the new golf course where weather always helps but seldom discourages. President of WRA golf this year was Marian Woodland.

BADMINTON

Fast becoming one of the most popular sports on the campus, badminton brings swift play for fun-loving sports enthusiasts. With Manager Margaret Spangler, Jean Stehr takes a swat at the shuttlecock.

VOLLEY BALL

Volley ball still holds interest for players, and Elaine White concentrates her energies toward pushing that ball back over the net. Edna Schmidt was student manager.

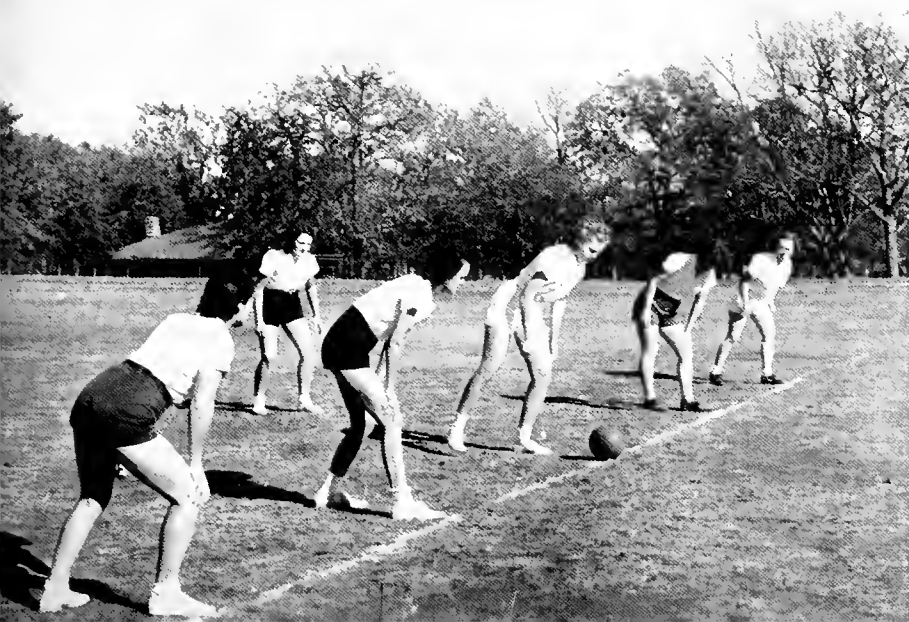

ARCHERY

Feminine Robin Hoods, Alice Cox and Mary Knight Chevalier, look down the arrow to a bull's eye. WRA manager of archery is Dorothy Bilbrey. The bows fly to their mark north of the tennis courts where several large bull's eyes are located.

SPEEDBALL

T E N N I S

Courts across Bell Avenue and those behind Lowry are always filled with TSCW students seeking relief from inside study. Gertrude Peyton managed the sport for WRA.

F E N C I N G

An increasingly popular sport, fencing adds more devotees each year. Gloria Suba and Mary Olive Dalton assume correct fencing position before engaging in sword play.

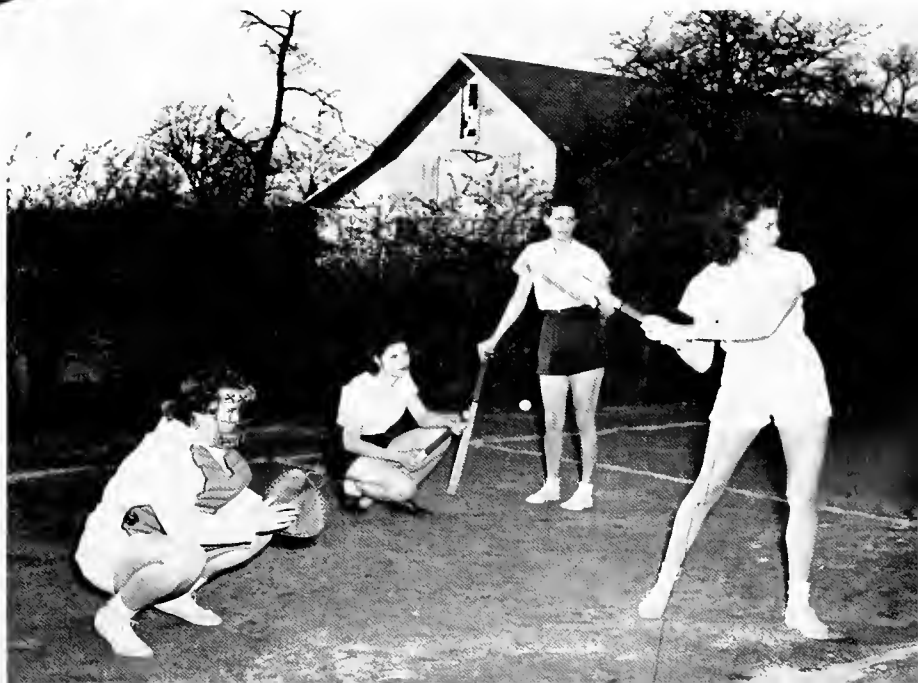

BASKETBALL

Plenty of action goes toward a winning basket and under the management of Helen Ann Snyder, basketball played a leading part in the recreational program.

BASEBALL

Out on the diamond Spring finds softball in full swing under the direction of WRA leader, Glenna Williams. Here Mary Olive Dalton wields the bat.

S H I P A H O Y !

Sails unfurled, motorboats humming, limbs cleaving the clear waters . . . all these and cokes and hot-dogs, too, make up the annual JUNIOR REGATTA—which acquatically speaking, vies with Billy Rose. Climaxing the afternoon's races comes the scene pictured above when the president of the victorious class (senior this time) gets the traditional ducking in Lake Dallas.

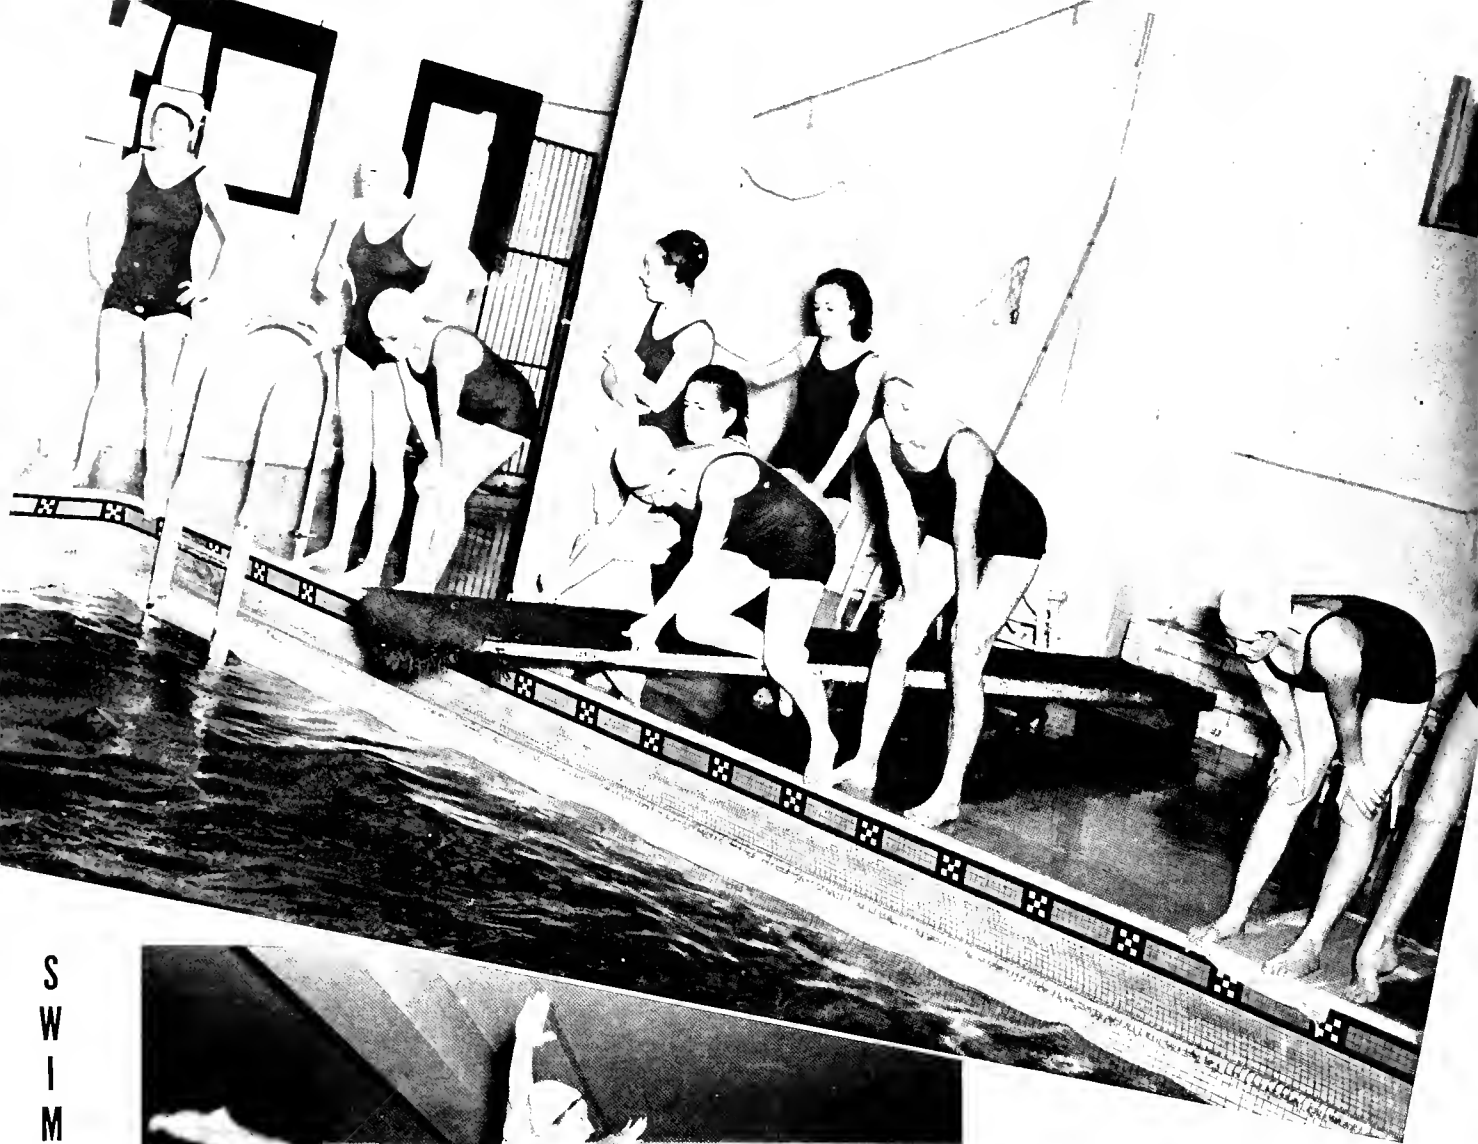

TSCW ANNIE OAKLEYS READY! AIM!

Shots ring out in the heretofore peaceful basement of Houston when Luella McManus and her crack riflewomen meet three times a week to brush up on their shooting averages. Eugenia Stewart is NYA director of the shooting range. Below, the TSCW stables are popular with the would-be horsewomen.

A PREREQUISITE TO LEARNING

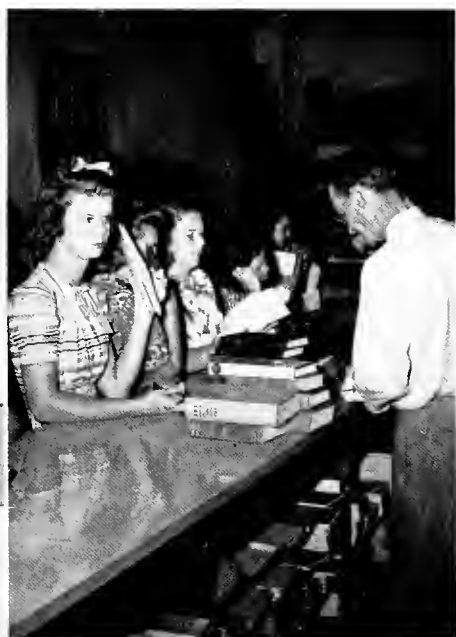

On September 16 the Denton sun shone down enthusiastically on one big tortured mass of humanity storming the doors of the Ad unintermittently, wrestling with matriculation cards, and mopping its collective brow in lines of 400 feet. (From top l. to r.) The Homesick coagulate in the most important building on the campus, the PO, to work out freak combinations and heckle Postmaster Weaver; . . . "gee, my dogs are barkin', Cobina"; Jane Strickland and Coni Eiland make coke sales to Shirley Melbert, Jean Stockey, Doris Wilson, and Betsy Ross; Union Fund Mgr. Strick relaxes between sales; family consultation held outside; Mr. Douglass doles out the textbooks to the Hungry-for-knowledge; Johnye advises an advisee; Registrar Emerson works overtime those first days.

HAIL TO THE SENIORS

High moguls of the campus for a night, the Class of '41 is honored by President Hubbard at the annual garden party. On this particular night, due to weather inclemency, the site was moved from the garden to the Music-Speech Building where seniors mingled with faculty, and renewed old acquaintances.

"SHINE ON HARVEST MOON"

Second year students have a rollicking time under October Harvest Moon. . . . Above, First Family of the Campus acknowledge the traditional serenade.

IT WAS A HARD FIGHT, MA, BUT WE WON

When the posters, painted sheets, and brass bands of the fall "fish" elections cleared away, the Hiegel faction was found ahead by a length. Right are the five captivating misses who steered the destinies of TSCW's largest freshman class so far: Virginia Farrell, Bonnie Neeley, Evelyn Hiegel, Marie Hurley, and Scorchy Goodson. . . . Above, Secretary Troy counts a mean ballot.

DANCE AT REI

To get a program filled out for the traditional Junior Barn Dance was one thing, but to crawl through a bulwark of hay for admission took ingenuity. Nevertheless, the farmer boys and girls of these parts voted it one of the season's best dances.

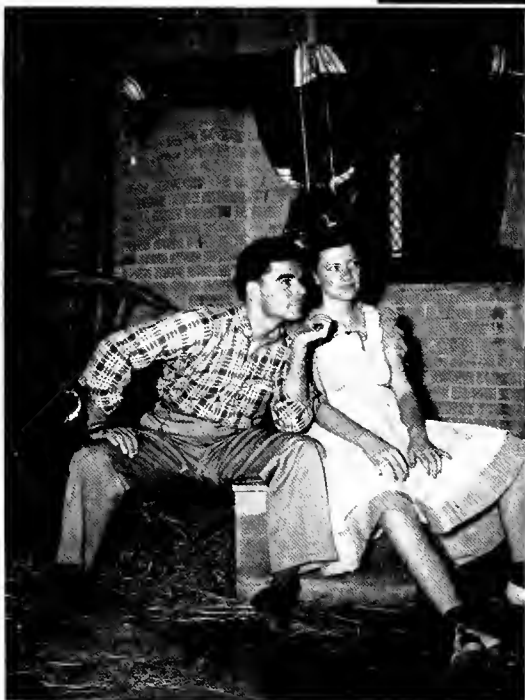

Top left, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rigler, class sponsors, get into the spirit of the occasion; above right, Josie almost didn't make that entrance; center, a corner on the apples; courtin' on a cultivator.

BARN TONIGHT

ONLY JUNIORS ALLOWED

RUSH WEEK

For a stipulated length of time the literary clubs are allowed to rush prospective members, climaxing this period with a rush party. Ingenuity reaches a high peak and originality amongst members runs to one extreme and back to make for something different in parties. . . . School-rooms, kid parties, Indian reservations, ranch parties, the patriotic theme, and night clubs all fitted into this year's social calendar.

MUCH LOWER THAN A WORM

PLEDGE WEEK is a time when conservative, balanced girls are seen to grovel upon the sidewalks, mop the p. o. floor with a toothbrush, bleed like a turnip with unabashed efforts. Top to bottom on this page you see girls from the best of families making fools of themselves . . . but never a jollier time on the campus; the happy one is McLendon giving L'Allegro publicity; mob scenes by the Chaps; rest at last; Athenaeums at initiation; Besty Ross pledges whip a smile off; Lowry acrobats.

Below, band pledge executes a reasonable facsimile of the goose walk; bottom, l., student prexy Naomi Boutwell agrees that the uniform makes the man; . . . bottom r., President Hubbard and Senior Prexy Rosenquest chuckle at President Bizzell's speech.

THE REDCOATS ARE COMING

This cry went up in true Paul Revere fashion when the Oklahoma U bandboys on their traditional look-in at TSCW before the Texas U game were marched, concerted, dinnared, and danced. Sandwich dating was the order of the day with roommates sharing a uniform.

Right, the band goes through its maneuvers; Edith Thomas glows at a likely looking Sooner; Anna Range and "Plut" Brown chat over desert; Martha Faye Clark demurely perches next to her choice.

Plenty of Corn at the Corn-Huskin' Bee

Weathered farm hands from the Sayers community clear through the Stoddard settlement washed behind their ears, slapped on their glad rags, and headed out for the gosh-durndest celebration since the boys pulled Sam Jones' pure Holstein cow out of the swamp grass. There lined up agin the wall was them city fellers come to judge the events and things was a-poppin' fore anything. Without battin' an eye a girl got out there and bawled like a laringitis coyote and they gave her the prize for hog callin'. We stood around with neighbors guzzlin' cider and havin' a slap-bang time, natcherlly.

UGH! WANTUM SMOKE PEACE PIPE, PARDNER

While the air is still warm with Fall, and assignments have have not yet become unbearable, it is the want of the four classes to cinch good fellowship among themselves in true Injun fashion. With a great deal of ceremony, lipstick, and feathers, the Freshman class is initiated into the tribe. Here are the pictures of the class officers and other big-wigs of the administration who officiate on the stage. Any resemblance to Apaches, living or in the Happy Hunting Ground, is purely incidental and not likely to happen again.

JUNIORS FETE AGGIES

A tradition of three-year vintage is the pre-corps trip celebration when the TSCW Junior Class honors the A&M Juniors with a steak-fry and dance. (From top to bottom) Everpresent and essential; looking on; rain drove the diners inside; the breadline; who said it, Beth?; caricaturists run wild; sitting this one out.

McDonald, daddy of the affair, consults with College Station talent on Aggie-Day sweetheart pictures; fair miss in the heart is Mary Margaret McCarthy, official sweetheart of the day; soldiers and their ladies enjoy the trip to Dallas; Louise Swender and Elizabeth Gregory put on the finishing touches; this looks too natural.

DATE: November 9, 1940.

SCENE OF ACTION: Dallas, A&M-SMU game.

OCCASION: Gathering of the clan, Brazos and Denton areas.

Top to bottom: Men still carry the bags; slush-pumpers at a tense moment with Mary Knight Chevallier beaming; weather damp, spirits high; our sweetheart takes the bouquet; sleeping beauties; after the ball; still after the ball.

KNITTIN' FOR BRITAIN

Under the auspices of the American Red Cross and Bundles for Britain, TSCW girls knitted woolen garments, turned out for a benefit party in the College Club and also had a good laugh at the Prof-Student Quiz program.

SENIOR YULETIDE PROM

Strains of "Jingle Bells" and shades of holly collaborated to bring Christmas cheer to Stoddard and those who entered therein on the night of December 7 . . . the Seniors. (L. to r.) Naomi radiates the real spirit of the occasion; Eady and Tully; Eugenia poses for a snap; Roberta dances off with a prosperous looking uniform; Swen and Mary Knight exchange intros; Shirley sits this one out.

THE YULETIDE SEASON

In addition to the club parties, class dances, and President Hubbard's Nativity Pageant which make the pre-Christmas season a gala time at school, we feel best when giving our yearly dormitory party gifts to a worthy organization.

THE POWERS THAT BE ...IN WEAK MOMENTS

Mr. Welch catches up on his reading behind the bars; Mr. Rigler looks natural; Mr. Emerson as the "queen's taster" before the OU deal; Dr. Murphy wonders if Dr. Talley can play badminton; Mr. Weaver serves as a demonstration.

... Guess who and where; Dr. Lang jumps rope for the b.a.'s; Mr. Garner assumes a photogenic angle; Dr. Morrison points out something geographical; the business manager and our prexy at an all-college picnic.

SOPHS COP

"One—two—three—kick! Watch your rhythm . . . please keep that line straight . . . we've just got to sing louder" . . . All this plus practice every night, costume fittings, up to the last minute changes, and more fun than you've had all year means All-College Stunt Night. Originality of dances, music, costumes, and smoothness of production make up the criteria for the judges and spoils to the victorious class go in the form of a loving cup for three years won by the Sophs.

STUNT CUP

LASSIES OUTSHOOT SOLDIERS

In a 20-round prone firing match, gentle gals of TSCW trounced hardened marksmen of A & M 981 to 979 points. Sharpshooting wonder of the afternoon in Houston Hall's usually peaceful basement, converted into a keen rifle range, was Irene Chamberlain's near perfect score of 199 out of a possible 200.

V I S I T I N G

*'Tis said in the schools
That flattery's the food of fools
But sometimes your men of wit
Will condescend to take a bit.*

Working on this axiom, TSCW fluttered her eyelashes and beat her palms together estactically when illustrious members of the Texas Legislature came a-visiting. A new Home Economics Building was the girls' theme song. Top to bottom: Younger Representatives W. T. McDonald, Fred Klingman, P. D. Thornton, Paul Eubanks pose; Woodrow Wilson Bean, Junior House member, succumbs to the charms of campus beauties; Representative McDonald gets a buttonaire from the hands of Sara Gillett; Senators R. These gracious qualities composed the criteria for the ideal TSCW girl.

I WOULD BE CHARMING

Redbud time on the TSCW campus marks the period of charm consciousness among the students. A week of excellent programs and guidance along that line was instigated and dubbed Self-Development Week. Outstanding events of the week were: Religion in the Life of the Cultivated Woman; a clothing clinic, a food clinic, the development of personality, a posture contest, a speech clinic, "the ideal TSCW girl," Americana Fashion Review, grooming clinic, and vocational guidance clinic, in which all departments were represented.

SENIOR PICNIC

Forgetting the past and banishing the thoughts of future security, Seniors flee to Lake Dallas for the last picnic awarded the graduating class each year.

CLASS OF '40 PLAYS HOOKEY

Senior Day means a special assembly with the reading of the class prophesy, will, and history followed by a picnic and through it all, the professors forget to call roll.

DREAMS COME ..TRUE..

THE SENIOR FORMAL . . . climax of four years of 8:15's, grade books, and professors, is the mecca toward which TSCW hearts beat and to which best boy-friends get asked.

Time is measured by the date of this wonderful occasion, and 'tis said that last year when the final notes of Russ Morgan's music died away, engagements were announced in terrific numbers.

Mar 2, 1874

It's all over for the time being

I have been very much suffering and am now
worse.

Love
yours
M. A.

Dear Miss Adams,
You have been wonderful to me, and I shall never forget as someone just like my mother.

I wish you a great deal of good and happiness
in life.

Be just sweet & true now and
I'm sure you will never miss me.

Yours
M. A.
